

October, 2024

It is officially fall, and even though October signals pumpkin and spice, it also calls for the warm and savory taste of fall apples. We are stocked with a variety of apple products. We have Butternut Squash and Apple Soup by Blount. You may also warm up your customers with Mountain Spiced Apple Cider Concentrate.

Elegant Food's bakery is busier than ever these days and gearing up for the demand that the upcoming holidays will bring. Please order your holiday pies and cookies as soon as you are able. The more lead time you can give us, will help to guarantee your order on time. If you have any questions or want to place your orders ahead of the rush, just give us a call, or place your advance order online.

Sassy Cow will have a price increase on their products that will go into effect beginning October 15th. Please be on the lookout for an updated price sheet when you receive your milk orders.
