

April, 2024

Another year has flown by for Elegant Foods. April 15th will mark our 33rd year in business. We deeply appreciate the confidence you have placed in us when choosing your specialty foods and bakery products. We could not have survived without your support, and thanks to you, we continue to grow. In addition to our customers, I thank our employees for their hard work and dedication. I also appreciate the long-term partnerships that we have sustained with our importers from Spain, France and Italy as well as our local suppliers and artisans from all over Wisconsin. Thank you for choosing to work with us!

Spring signals the start of a busy time for buffets and celebrations with graduations, Mother's Day and weddings. I'm really excited about a new import company that we just started working with and we have several new items that are now in stock. These are all high-quality products; many are produced in Europe.
